FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

EVANSVILLE FELON SENTENCED FOR POSSESSION OF AMMUNITION

PRESS RELEASE

Susan W. Brooks, United States Attorney for the Southern District of Indiana, announced that EDWARD J. IVY, 27, of Evansville, Indiana, was sentenced to 37 months imprisonment today by U.S. District Judge Richard L. Young following his guilty plea to felon in possession of ammunition. This case was the result of an investigation by the Bureau of Alcohol Tobacco Firearms and Explosives and the Evansville Police Department.

IVY plead guilty to the offense on October 7, 2005, at which time he admitted that he possessed ammunition in Evansville on April 7, 2004, after he had sustained a felony conviction for armed robbery in 1997.

According to Assistant United States Attorney Todd S. Shellenbarger, who prosecuted the case for the government, Judge Young also imposed 2 years supervised release following IVY's release from imprisonment. During the period of supervised release, IVY must undergo drug testing and treatment.
